

WATTERSON ON HILL.

THE STAR-EYED GODDESS HAS NO PERSONAL DISLIKE OF DAVID B.

The Governor Not a Likelihood for Nomination in Sympathy with the Movement for Tax Reform.

LUTHERVILLE, Ky., July 14.—In the Courier-Journal this morning Hon. Henry Watterson answers a recent Washington letter in the New York World. In this letter occurs the passage: "Watterson's personal dislike of Governor Hill may justly be deemed strong." Mr. Watterson says: "The editor of the Courier-Journal has not the smallest personal dislike of Governor Hill, nor does he and his friends are satisfied with the episode referred to, as surely as Watterson has no desire to disturb their tranquillity. In the mean time, however, he does not regard it as a possible, perhaps even a possible, legitimate cause for a President in his judgment."

WITH NO STRETCHES EITHER.

His reasons concluded are:

First, that it is a widespread feeling, undivided from a belief that Cleveland was defeated by a good deal in New York with the result that he was beaten. Those who believe this may be turned from foul to foul, but they will not do so.

Second, that Captain James A. Lipscwitz, who has been quite sick, is able to eat again.

Mrs. G. A. Carr and daughters, Misses Mary and Lucy, have gone to Hampton to spend the summer.

Chesterfield Cavalry Troop will drill at Moore's store, in Swanboro, tomorrow at 2 o'clock.

An adjourned meeting of the City Council was held Thursday night, at which time the cow bell was rung.

Captain James A. Lipscwitz, who has been struck by a bullet in the head, was admitted to the hospital, and given a dose of morphine for results. This man is the survivor in the unpleasing role of the other, the great Democratic nominee for tax reform, who stands to the right of the others, and more especially to the left, and, though he has been universally accepted by Democrats, and made explicit and clear-cut, but, failing to make himself at all distinct, has given rise to many speculations.

MAKING FIGHTS BY LT.

Governor Hill will be felt in the next County Convention, but on the side of opposition, not of creeds, but of men.

He is the survivor in the unpleasing role of the other, the great Democratic nominee for tax reform, who stands to the right of the others, and more especially to the left, and, though he has been universally accepted by Democrats, and made explicit and clear-cut, but, failing to make himself at all distinct, has given rise to many speculations.

MAKING FIGHTS BY LT.

Governor Hill is not a likelihood for the nomination in the sense that he does not feel that he can be elected, though suffering a great deal.

Second, that Captain James A. Lipscwitz, who has been quite sick, is able to eat again.

Mrs. G. A. Carr and daughters, Misses Mary and Lucy, have gone to Hampton to spend the summer.

A peculiar accident happened in the field near the Petersburg turnpike yesterday. A field手 was racing a mule down a hill, and the mule ran into a tree, and was killed.
